OF ECONOMICS IN
THE IMPERIAL UNIVERSITY OF KYOTO

NOTES

Professor Miono Yamamoto, HH., M. A. (Wisconsin), retired from the professorship of Kyoto Imperial University on attaining the age of sixty on January 22nd, and the title of Professor Emeritus of Kyoto Imperial University was conferred upon him by Imperial order. The Kyoto Imperial University Economic Society issued a Special Number of the Keizai-Ronsô in commemoration of his attaining his sixtieth year.

Assistant-Professor Yoshinosuke Yagi took the degree of Keizaigakuhakushi (Doctor of Economics) on March 10th.

The Kyoto Imperial University Economic Society held a lecture-meeting and an exhibition in commemoration of the Fifteenth Anniversary of the Foundation of the Department. The Lecture-meeting took place on May 29th, the five professors undermentioned delivering lectures as follows:—

Prof. Kambe: Opening address.

Prof. Honjo: The last fifteen years of the Tokugawa Shogunate.

Prof. Shiomi: National income of Japan.

Prof. Sakuda: The power of thought and the thought of power.

Prof. Takata: On poverty.

The Exhibition, which took place on May 29th and 30th, contained oriental and occidental original works on economics amounting to 600 items, including handwritings and portraits of prominent economists, and several tables showing the development of the Department for the past fifteen years. The catalogue of the Exhibition is printed in Vol. XXXIX, No. 1 of the Keizai-Ronsô.

Professor Emeritus Kinji Tajima, Hg., HH., a former Professor of the Department passed away on June 28th. The Japanese world of economic science owed much to him for his pioneerwork in the field of economic theory and social problems formerly, and history of oriental economics of late, as well as the Department for his distinguished guidance as one of its Founders. We express here our respectful condolences in the name of the Department and the Economic Society.

The Department of Economics of Kyoto Imperial University has at present (July, 1934) nine professors, seven assistant professors, and five lecturers, while the total number of student is 838.
